

Reverend, Dr. Edward. W. Dorn, ThD, Pastor

As we contemplate the challenges of this New Year, it is a time of reflection, but also a time for preparation to meet the changing landscape. The year 2011 has already begun with discouraging news, but as believers we must trust God that he will not put on us more than we can bear. We see the escalating high prices where the necessities for life are almost beyond our reach. We see the massive unemployment, the poor economy, the threat of decreasing social security, wars and rumors of wars and we wonder how we are going to survive in such a mess. But experience has taught us when times get tough, the tough gets going and we know that the God who has kept us in the past is still able to keep us in the future. Our God who loves us dearly is able to supply all of our needs according to his riches in glory. So come what will or may our hope is in him who is able. The prognosis for our future is dim, but Gods way is bright and so as we step out into the uncertainty of a New Year, let us remember the words of Proverbs 3:5-6, "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him and he shall direct thy paths.

Pastor E.W. Dorn

The Great Commission (Outreach)

"Just being like Jesus is not enough. We have to tell the world about Jesus."

The Great Commission - A Personal Instruction

The Great Commission is one of the most significant passages in the Holy Bible. First, it's the last personal instruction given by Jesus to His disciples. Second, it's a special calling from Jesus Christ to all His followers to take specific action while on this earth. The Great Commission is found in the Gospel of Matthew:

"And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen. (Matthew 28:18-20)

Outreach Ministries - Message from the President

Greetings from Cleo Johnson, President of the Outreach Ministries of Second Baptist Church.

New Years brings about a new beginning. We at the Outreach Ministries love to start with new beginnings. Our goal for the year of 2011 is to help more people in this world. It might be from putting food on the table, clothes on someone's back, or talking to someone about the word of God. At Outreach Ministry we are trying to help out wherever and whenever we are needed. We attend all of the annual days in the communities and help the seniors with programs they do not understand at the Office on Aging. There are more new programs coming out all the time. We are going to do more outreach with the sick and shut in and also the nursing homes.

What is the Outreach Ministry? The Outreach Ministry is about helping someone that you might know or may not know. Come join us if you would like to help out.

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father, who is in heaven." Matthew 5:16

The Great Commission (cont'd) - A Personal Calling

In the Great Commission, Jesus calls every Christian to step out in faith and spread the Good News. This is faith in action! People who obey this command change their spiritual lives forever! It could be spreading the Good News to a neighbor or moving to another country to reach the people there. It could be sharing with less fortunate kids down the street or spreading the Word in a town two hours away. Wherever we go, every faithful Christian is compelled through obedience to share the Gospel. If you're a believer in Jesus Christ, where has He called you to go? Who has God put on your heart to share the gift of salvation? What small or large steps can you take, with the knowledge that Christ will be by your side, "to make disciples of all the nations"?

Duplex: How to Use!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

The Importance of using your Duplex Envelopes

Member #:

- When you become a member of Second Baptist Church (SBC), you are assigned a member number. This number is used by the Church Treasury Department to keep an account of all offerings to the church for by that member.
- The Treasury Department creates a Tax Document at the end of each year based on the funds offered in these envelopes. If you don't use the duplex envelope assigned to you when you make donations, the Treasury Department cannot count it in the Tax Document prepared for you. This means for tax purposes, you don't get credit for it. If you want to get credit for all offerings, they must be included in your duplex. If you forget your duplex, extra envelopes are kept in the last pew. Just remember to write your member number and name on the envelope.
- The Treasury Department is responsible for keeping accurate records by law. Your duplex envelopes are used for this purpose.

Envelope Date:

- The members of SBC do a great job in meeting the financial needs of the church and understand the importance of continuing contribution, even if a Sunday is missed. Please note if you miss a Sunday, it is ok to include the missed contribution in your next weeks envelope. It is not necessary to turn in missed envelopes.

Additional Lines:

- Additional lines are available for other donations (i.e., Men and Women's Day, Auxiliary & Board Dues, Donations for Haiti, or any other donations not itemized above.

For questions on your duplexes, see SBC's Financial Secretary, Trustee Benny Liles.

R.S.V.P. - PLEASE ANSWER

REVELATION 19:7-9 And He saith unto me, “Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb.”

Almost Midnight:

Dear Ones For Whom Christ Died:

Recently, I was invited to a very beautiful wedding. The couple were prominent and among the wealthy. I sent my R.S.V.P., promptly. Much time was spent in shopping for the right clothes to wear and very much time and concern in selecting the right gift. Although, I knew they would receive many more expensive gifts than mine, I wanted it to be so very nice, for such a lovely event. Well, the give was bought, paid for, a nice card was enclosed, and beautifully wrapped. Then, with care (afraid it might become marred or broken) we took it personally to the Bride's home. Leaving there, I breathed a sigh of relief and satisfaction that all expected of me was accomplished.

This started me thinking! Suddenly, I remember another Wedding Invitation. In fact, a Hidden Truth had come to Light. I was guilty of being remiss about another letter I had received. Where? In the Bible! This invitation was from a “Most Prominent” of all, and “Riches” beyond compare Family, and unbelievable as it might seem, I hadn't acknowledged the Invitation or given thought to the gift to be sent ahead. Yes, I fell to my knees and asked God (The Host) to forgive me. Oh yes, the tears began to fall, because along with His Invitation, He sent a Gift to me also — The Gift of Eternal Life, through the only Savior, Jesus Christ, God's great Gift to “Whosoever will”, (John 3:14 - 18.) I wept! Oh, how I wept! But I thanked God for awakening me from slumber. I had worked to do; there was an elaborate preparation in progress for “The Marriage Supper of the Lamb”, (for the “elect, those who receive and accept) in the Father's House of Many Mansions, (St. John 14: 1-6) and I had not even acknowledged my attendance by accepting in grateful love and action. Immediately, I started searching for a gift for Him, by testifying to the lost for whom He died. I pray my gift to Him will be more than the “talent” (Matt. 25:14-30) I possess, and made up of many precious souls. Enclosed will be my name, (because “He” knows me well) you see, My Name is already in “The Book of Life”, and He knew I would be “There” but, I was guilty of the sin of omission.

I feel much better now — I talked with him about my regret in neglecting His “Precious Invitation”. By the way, “Have you accepted yours?”

If not, read about it in His Word - Revelations 19:7-10, St.

Little-known tuition tax break extended

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — A little-known tuition tax break that was due to expire this month has been renewed for middle-class families nationwide and will provide as much as $2,500 a year in tuition relief through 2012, Sen. Charles Schumer said Wednesday.

The measure takes $1 off a taxpayer's federal bill for every $1 spent on college tuition, the New York Democrat said. Just 43 percent of eligible families took advantage of the break last year.

But families that didn't seek the break can still amend old tax returns, dating back three years, to claim the credit. The tax break can be found in federal tax returns, and tax preparers should be familiar with it, he said.

Schumer sponsored the bill. The renewal of the program, which costs $18 billion over two years, passed the Senate on Wednesday, days before it was to expire. Of that total, $2 billion is budgeted for New York.

Higher education costs have risen at many times the inflation rate in recent years.

“A college education is a necessity that is priced as a luxury,” Schumer told reporters. “It's breaking the bank of too many New Yorkers.”

He cited the federal Advisory Committee on Student Financial Assistance, which found cost prevents 48 percent of college-qualified high school graduates from attending a four-year school.

P. S. We won't have to worry about what to wear, because it is impromptu and could happen at any moment. But since only God Himself knows the Day and the Hour, He has a “Robe” for all of us, “The Righteousness of Christ” Isn't He Wonderful! (Isaiah 61:10, St. Luke 15:20-22)

Oh yes, many will join us later. Rev. 6:9-11

Without doubt, we know they have suffered greatly, but it will be all worth it. What a meeting! What a Savior! What Glory! (But as it is written, eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things that God hath prepared for them that love Him. 1st. Corinthians 2:9.

John 20:1-10

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

Psalm 33 18-22

But the eyes of the LORD are on those who fear him, on those whose hope is in his unfailing love, to deliver them from death and keep them alive in famine.

We wait in hope for the LORD; he is our help and our shield. In him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in his holy name. May your unfailing love be with us, LORD, even as we put our hope in you.

Who wrote the song "Precious Lord"?

I was very surprised to find out who it was.

THE BIRTH OF THE HYMN "PRECIOUS LORD"

Back in 1932, I was a fairly new husband. My wife, Nettie and I were living in a little apartment on Chicago's south side. One hot August afternoon I had to go to St. Louis where I was to be the featured soloist at a large revival meeting. I didn't want to go; Nettie was in the last month of pregnancy with our first child, but a lot of people were expecting me in St. Louis. I kissed Nettie goodbye, clattered downstairs to our Model A and, in a fresh Lake Michigan breeze, chugged out of Chicago on Route 66. However, outside the city, I discovered that in my anxiety at leaving, I had forgotten my music case. I wheeled around and headed back.

I found Nettie sleeping peacefully. I hesitated by her bed; something was strongly telling me to stay. But eager to get on my way, and not wanting to disturb Nettie, I shrugged off the feeling and quietly slipped out of the room with my music.

The next night, in the steaming St. Louis heat, the crowd called on me to sing again and again. When I finally sat down, a messenger boy ran up with a Western Union telegram. I ripped open the envelope. Pasted on the yellow sheet were the words: YOUR WIFE JUST DIED.

People were happily singing and clapping around me, but I could hardly keep from crying out. I rushed to a phone and called home. All I could hear on the other end was "Nettie is dead. Nettie is dead."

When I got back, I learned that Nettie had given birth to a boy. I swung between grief and joy. Yet that same night, the baby died. I buried Nettie and our little boy together, in the same casket. Then I fell apart. For days I closeted myself. I felt that God had done me an injustice. I didn't want to serve Him anymore or write gospel songs I just wanted to go back to that jazz world I once knew so well. But then, as I hunched alone in that dark apartment those first sad days, I thought back to the afternoon I went to St. Louis. Something kept telling me to stay with Nettie. Was that something God? Oh, if I had paid more attention to Him that day, I would have stayed and been with Nettie when she died.

From that moment on I vowed to listen more closely to Him. But still I was lost in grief. Everyone was kind to me, especially one friend. The following Saturday evening he took me up to Maloney's Poro College, a neighborhood music school. It was quiet; the late evening sun crept through the curtained windows. I sat down at the piano, and my hands began to browse over the keys. Something happened to me then. I felt at peace. I felt as though I could reach out and touch God. I found myself playing a melody. Once in my head they just seemed to fall into place:

'Precious Lord, take my hand, lead me on, let me stand, I am tired, I am weak, I am worn, through the storm, through the night, lead me on to the light, take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.'

The Lord gave me these words and melody, He also healed my spirit. I learned that when we are in our deepest grief, when we feel farthest from God, this is when He is closest, and when we are most open to His restoring power. And so I go on living for God willingly and joyfully, until that day comes when He will take me and gently lead me home.

-Tommy Dorsey

For those too young to know who he is, Tommy Dorsey was a well-known band leader in the 1930's and 40's. Did you know that Tommy Dorsey wrote this song? I surely didn't. What a wonderful story of how God CAN heal the brokenhearted! Beautiful, isn't it? Worth the reading, wasn't it? Think on the message for a while. Thought you might like to share this, I just did.
